

Lesson 4Correct Word Order

Look at the underlined section in each sentence. If the words are in the correct order, put a checkmark on the line. If the words are NOT in the correct order, rewrite the sentence correctly on the line. You may have to add a word to some sentences.

Correct word order means using words in a certain order to make your meaning clear.

1. Dinner is not ready. _____
2. Why you are making the rice? _____
3. Mama has her first class tonight. _____
4. When she is coming home? _____
5. She was wearing a dress new. _____
6. How you do know that? _____
7. I not am blind! _____
8. Hey, don't give the child a knife sharp! _____

Complete each sentence. Fill in the blank with a word that makes sense.

9. What _____ your brother say?
10. You _____ not kidding!
11. I'm hoping for a new _____ for my birthday.
12. Who did you _____ to the party?

Write a question beginning with the word who, what, where, or when.
