

Writing Text Type

Narrative ParagraphThe Blizzard
By Sheronica Gonzales

The worst weather I remember was last winter. There was a major blizzard. On sunday the snow began to fall. So intense. After two whole days, the snow stopped. It was beautiful outside. We played for a long time. It took a month for it to melt. I'll never forget the big blizzard.

Revise

- Use the ratings to revise the passage.

Scoring Guide
needs improvement	average	good	excellent
1	2	3	4

- Does the introduction identify the topic?
1 2 3 (4)
- Are the events in the right time order?
1 (2) 3 4
- Do sensory details bring the story to life?
1 (2) 3 4
- Do transition words and phrases connect ideas?
1 2 (3) 4
- Does the paragraph use precise language?
1 2 (3) 4
- Does the concluding sentence sum up the narrative in a satisfying way?
1 2 (3) 4

Resource Links*SAM Keyword: Revision W2

Writing Text Type

Narrative ParagraphThe Blizzard
By Sheronica Gonzales

The worst weather I remember was last winter. There was a ^{major} blizzard. On Sunday, ^{The storm quickly became thick and} the snow began to fall. ^{So intense.} After two whole days, the snow stopped. It was beautiful outside. We played for a long time. ^{the snow} It took a month for it to melt. I'll never forget ^{last year's huge} the big blizzard.

We built snow people and went sledding.

Trees, cars, houses, and streets were covered in a gleaming white blanket.

Revise

► Use the ratings to revise the passage.

Scoring Guide
needs improvement	average	good	excellent
1	2	3	4

- Does the introduction identify the topic?
1 2 3 (4)
- Are the events in the right time order?
1 (2) 3 4
- Do sensory details bring the story to life?
1 (2) 3 4
- Do transition words and phrases connect ideas?
1 2 (3) 4
- Does the paragraph use precise language?
1 2 (3) 4
- Does the concluding sentence sum up the narrative in a satisfying way?
1 2 (3) 4

Resource Links*SAM Keyword: Revision W2