(this is part of the CMS Tardy Policy)

8 Mathematical Practices (made easy)

- 1) I can solve complex problems without giving up
- 2) I can think about numbers in many ways
- 3) I can explain my thinking and try to understand/edit others' thinking
- 4) I can show my work in many ways
- 5) I can use math tools and explain why I chose them
- 6) I can work carefully and check my work
- 7) I can use what I know to solve new problems
- 8) I can solve problems by looking for rules and patterns

Duke UNIVERSITY

Course Description

This high-school level course will follow the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) for Integrated Math-1 using Carnegie Learning. Carnegie uses consumable workbooks and has an on-line presence where you can print copies and get some help. Carnegie is completely aligned with the CCSS and the 8 Mathematical Practices.

Grading

Final grades will be weighted based on: tests/quizzes (60%), homework/classwork (25%), performance tasks / projects (15%).

Basic grading scale applies: A (90-100%), B (80-89%), C (70-79%), D (60-69%), F (0-59%)

Citizenship

Outstanding*: Consistently positive and polite students who actively participate in class and come prepared on a daily basis.

Satisfactory: Positive and polite students who regularly participate in class and come prepared.

(phone call home)

Needs Improvement: Students who participate only when prompted, who cause some disruptions, and/or who come to class unprepared frequently.

Unsatisfactory: Students who do not participate, do not come prepared, and/or who disrupt the supportive nature of the classroom.

* will bump grades across threshold: ex. B+ to A-

Homework Policy

- Homework will be posted in class, on Aeries, and on class calendar daily (worth 5 points)
- Assignments will be given daily
- Late homework is worth 3 points unless absence is excused

Test Corrections

- Only if you earn a C or below
- Highest possible grade is C+
- Correct your mistake and explain what you did wrong initially

After School Help w/ Mr. Abate: Wed from 3-4pm

Class Rules: Be Honest; Be Considerate; Be Prepared; Be Responsible; Always Do Your Best!
