

Cornell Notes 	Topic/Objective: Identify significant literary devices that define a writer's style and use to interpret work	Name:
		Class/Period: Lang. Arts
Essential Question: How does Langston Hughes' poem, "Mother to Son", advise the reader to overcome difficulty and keep from giving up in life?
Questions:	Notes:
① What is the significance of the speaker in the poem?	① Speaker - * voice that communicates a poem's ideas, actions, descriptions, & feelings - similar to narrator - can be unknown or specific (like character)
② How does a poet's choice of speaker affect the mood / meaning of a poem?	② Impt. - Poet's choice of speaker contributes to the poem's mood / meaning - who speaks is as impt. as what is said - different points of view regarding same event (ie. parent, child, elderly person) - * the person telling the story gives point of view and affects the message told ← P.O.V*
Summary: The speaker/voice in the poem is important because it communicates the ideas/feelings of the poem. Who the poet chooses as the speaker identifies the point of view and affects the message/meaning. Hughes uses vocabulary and style to convey the message that life is hard when Mother says "Life for me ain't been no crystal staircase."
